WHAT DO WE OFFER?

ABOUT KEDGE
Kedge Business School is France’s largest independent Business School and one of only 76 institutions worldwide holding triple accreditation awarded by the three largest and most influential, international business school accreditation associations: EQUIS, AMBA and AACSB. Consistently ranked among the Top-40 Business and Management institutions in Europe by the Financial Times, it is France’s leading institution of Management research publications.

1. TAILOR-MADE PROGRAMS
Kedge provides all academic content, logistic and organisational support. Credits may be awarded by the home-institution, or by Kedge.

2. FACULTY-LED PROGRAMMES
Kedge provides logistics and organisational support (social & cultural visits, business trips, etc.) Courses delivered and credits awarded by the home-institution.

Our Tailor-made and Faculty-led programmes may be developed either:
- On a fee-paying basis
- On an exchange basis

FROM BACHELOR TO MASTER, MBA TO EXECUTIVE EDUCATION, KEDGE BUSINESS SCHOOL IS AVAILABLE TO BUILD A TAILOR-MADE PROGRAMME SPECIFICALLY DESIGNED TO MEET THE NEEDS OF YOUR INSTITUTION.

We can build for you:
- a short programme, with or without ECTS credits
- a programme mixing academic courses, business and cultural visits
- a Tour de France, sending students to any or all of our campuses in Paris, Bordeaux, Marseille and Toulon

Benefit from the expertise of our international faculty to deliver high-quality courses in the subject of your choosing
- or develop a programme co-delivered between our faculty and your own.

BORDEAUX
Bordeaux, France, a UNESCO listed heritage site and voted the most attractive European destinations, is renowned for its fine wine and luxury market. A study opportunity in Bordeaux is the opportunity to take a closer look at the crossroads between traditional expertise and standards of excellence they intersect with the concepts of luxury brand management and marketing. Thanks to its location on the Atlantic coast and just 2 hours from Paris by high-speed rail, Bordeaux is a hub for a number of multinational companies and a growing economy, making it a logical choice for a closer look at innovations in Supply Chain Management & Design. Bordeaux is also a reference for “FrenchTech” for its aptitude in developing innovative technologies.

MARSEILLE
Marseille, France’s 2nd largest city in France, is beautifully situated on France’s southern coast, bordering the Mediterranean Sea. It was the first Greek settlement in France (est. 600 B.C.). It is also one of Europe’s biggest port cities that links Europe to Africa, Asia and the Middle East. A Crossroads of the Mediterranean, Marseille is a city with a diverse population, both interns of ethnicity and culture. Named as the European Capital of Culture in 2013 and the European Capital of Sport in 2017, Marseille is one of France’s most dynamic cities. With 7,200 companies created over the last 5 years and as France’s second largest research center, what better place to come and join one of our International Summer School programmes dedicated to Sustainable Entrepreneurship, Design thinking and Sports Marketing?

PARIS
Paris is a city that needs no introduction – the City of Lights. An indisputable world capital, home to the signing of the most ambitious international accords on curbing climate change, the Paris Agreements in 2016, and future host to the 2024 Olympics, it has inspired some of the greatest creative talents and critical thinkers throughout modern history. What better place to spend 2 weeks gaining an insight into Disruptive Technologies and their impact on the companies and managers who use them!

TOULON
Toulon campus is in the heart of the city, in the “creativity and knowledge district.” Located across from the train station and nestled within parc Alexandre 1er, the site is home to Toulon’s art and design school, the public media library, local government (conseil départemental du var), a business incubator, a number of french-tech start-ups and 160 homes. Toulon, one of The Guardian’s top six European seaside cities, boasts an excellent geographic location, 4 hrs from Paris and 2.5 hrs from the southern Alps. It also has Europe’s most beautiful harbor, interspersed with “Blue Flag” beaches and unspoiled coves.
