
2016 Financial Times Executive MBA ranking

The Global MBA from KEDGE Business School is now ranked n°22 worldwide and pursues its progress in the TOP Executive MBA

 Ranked 22nd, one place up from last year, the KEDGE BS Global MBA pursues its progress in the Top 25 of the 2016 Financial Times Executive MBA ranking. In seven years, it has moved up 62 places in this reference ranking.

KEDGE BS is now ranked alongside some of the most prestigious Business Schools in the world: London Business School (19th), Duke University (20th), Warwick (23rd), Kellogg : Northwestern / Korea University Business School (24th), IMD (27th), Columbia (28th)… In France, KEDGE BS also confirms its position as the 4th French Executive MBA, behind HEC, INSEAD and ESCP. In China, where the programme is also provided on the campus of Shanghai, KEDGE BS is also ranked 4th behind Tsinghua/INSEAD, SJTU Antai and CEIBS.

For the third year in a row, the KEDGE BS Global MBA Graduates are n°1 for salary increase.

"This excellent ranking confirms KEDGE BS’s strategy to focus its development on Executive Education activities both in Paris and Asia", says Thomas Froehlicher, Director General and Dean of KEDGE BS. Overall this proves that the Kedge BS Global MBA brings to its participants a very important added-value, both financial and professional, that is the mark of the very best Executive MBAs worldwide.

Supporting individual and collective transformations

This ranking is the result of our excellent performance on many criteria. The Global MBA of KEDGE BS is ranked:

- N°1 worldwide in salary growth with 103% increase 3 years after the end of the programme vs salary at the entrance of the MBA
- N°5 worldwide for career progress calculated according to changes in the level of seniority and the size of company alumni work in now, vs before the EMBA
- N°15 worldwide for “aims achieved”, the qualitative assessment our alumni give of whether they have reached the objectives they had when entering the programme.

In the field of Executive Education, KEDGE BS has set the task of supporting individual and collective transformation. This value proposition is reflected in the evaluation of the Global MBA graduates and their satisfaction. Delivered in France (Paris, Marseille, Bordeaux) and China (Shanghai) in partnership with Shanghai Jiao Tong University, the KEDGE BS Global MBA is the only French MBA to be formally recognized by the Chinese Government. Graduates can rely on a strong network of over 1,000 Alumni worldwide, including 750 in China.

The evolution of the Global MBA in the FT EMBA ranking:
84th (2010); 61st (2011); 48th (2012); 43rd (2013); 27th (2014); 23rd (2015); 22nd (2016)
